

Ian Sollom MP STANDING UP FOR BAR HILL WARD

Dear [REDACTED]

So much feels uncertain right now, and too often it seems things are moving in the wrong direction.

That is why it has never been more important to have a councillor who will stand up for what is right and fight for the amazing community here in Bar Hill.

I've been out and about speaking with local residents, and keep hearing the same message. People want a local team that will stay focused on the everyday issues that matter most: from fixing potholes to improving our local NHS, protecting our green spaces and delivering real action to cut the cost of living.

I also hear deep disappointment with the Conservative Party. Both locally and nationally, we all know that they have let us down. They left our roads crumbling, our NHS at breaking point, and our council budget cut to the bone.

Many residents have also shared concerns about Reform UK. We've all seen how Reform candidates have been elected on bold promises, only to raise council tax by up to 10% in places like Worcestershire, while wasting thousands of pounds on vanity projects and unnecessary by-elections caused by resignations and bitter infighting.

We deserve so much better than that.

Over the last few years, your local Liberal Democrats have been working hard to clean up the mess left behind by years of Conservative chaos. They are delivering real change and investing in our local communities, but there is still so much more to do.

On 7 May, your vote will decide the future for South Cambridgeshire.

Vote Liberal Democrat for a local champion who will fight for our area, prevent a return to Conservative chaos, stop Reform UK, and make sure the best days for Bar Hill are ahead of us.

Best wishes,

Ian Sollom - MP for St Neots and Mid Cambridgeshire

P.S. Neither Labour nor the Green Party have a record of winning here. A vote for them will only make it easier for Reform and the Conservatives to win.
